New This Week

Premiering Wednesday, July 1, on Prime Video, “Elle” turns back the clock on one of pop culture’s most beloved characters, following a teenage Elle Woods (Lexi Minetree) years before she charmed her way through Harvard Law School in “Legally Blonde.” Set during Elle’s high school years, the coming-of-age prequel explores the friendships, challenges and formative experiences that helped shape the confident, optimistic and determined young woman fans first met on the big screen. Produced by Reese Witherspoon, who famously originated the role, the series blends comedy, heart and early -2000s nostalgia while introducing a new generation to the iconic character. In a strong vote of confidence, Prime Video has already renewed the series for a second season ahead of its debut.

Now Streaming

Currently streaming on Hulu and Hulu on Disney+, “Never Change!” puts a wildly unconventional spin on the coming-of-age comedy by following a group of former classmates whose senior year was cut short by a devastating tornado in 2008. Now in their mid-30s, the graduates of North Meadows High School are forced to return home and finally complete the education they never finished, reopening old wounds, rekindling past romances and confronting the people they thought they had left behind. The ensemble comedy stars Carmen Christopher, John Reynolds, Sofia Black-D’Elia, Jo Firestone and Gary Richardson, with supporting appearances from Topher Grace, Ana Gasteyer, Patti Harrison and Zach Cherry. Blending absurd humor with nostalgic reflections on growing up, the series explores what happens when adulthood collides headfirst with unfinished business from high school.

Lexi Minetree

Also currently streaming on Hulu, Season 2 of “The Season” picks up immediately after the shocking death of Nick (Steve Carell), forcing a close-knit group of longtime friends to navigate grief, uncertainty and a rapidly changing future. As Nick’s partner Ginny faces an unexpected pregnancy, the group struggles to maintain the vacation traditions that have long defined their relationships, gathering in destinations that range from the Italian Alps to the New Jersey boardwalk. Returning stars Tina Fey, Will Forte, Colman Domingo, Marco Calvani and Kerri Kenney-Silver bring humor and heart to the ensemble dramedy, which continues to balance sharp comedy with poignant reflections on friendship, loss and the challenges of moving forward.

Coming Up

Arriving Thursday, July 9, on Netflix, “Little House on the Prairie” reimagines Laura Ingalls Wilder’s beloved semi-autobiographical novels for a new generation. The series follows young Laura Ingalls (Alice Halsey) and her father, Charles Ingalls (Luke Bracey), as the Ingalls family faces the hardships and opportunities of life on the American frontier. Blending family drama, frontier adventure and historical storytelling, the adaptation explores the resilience, determination and community spirit that helped shape the American West. While honoring the spirit of the classic books, the new series offers a broader perspective on the diverse people and cultures who lived on the frontier, creating a fresh take on one of literature’s most enduring family stories.

HOLLYWOOD

By Tony Rizzo

"Paddington in Peru" grossed $211 million in 2024 (while all three "Paddington" films have grossed about $700 million combined). "Paddington 4" is now in preproduction. Hugh Bonneville, Emily Mortimer, Julie Walters and Jim Broadbent are expected to return, as is Ben Whishaw as the voice of Paddington.

Robert Pattinson has to be one of the busiest actors in films today. As he awaits the release of "The Odyssey" on July 17, he's also waiting for "Dune: Part Three" to hit screens on Dec.18. He'll follow these up with Netflix's "Here Comes the Flood," co-starring Denzel Washington and Daisy Edgar-Jones.

As if this wasn't enough, he's currently in preproduction for "The Batman: Part II." Jeffrey Wright, Andy Serkis, Colin Farrell, Barry Keoghan and Charles Dance are returning, while Sebastian Stan, Scarlett Johansson, and Brian Tyree Henry are joining the cast. It started shooting this month for an October 2027 opening.

Julia Roberts will produce and star in "Home Economics," which is based on the forthcoming novel by Katy Hays. But before this, we'll see her thriller "Panic Carefully" with Eddie Redmayne and Brian Tyree Henry in February 2027. Redmayne can still be seen in Peacock's series "The Day of the Jackal."

Also due in February 2027 is “Narnia: The Magician’s Nephew,” starring Meryl Streep, Carey Mulligan and Daniel Craig. It wrapped filming this past January and is due to drop on Netflix after its theatrical run on April 2, 2027.

In 1958, “The Horror of Dracula,” starring Christopher Lee, ran into problems with censors because of sexually explicit scenes that they had to cut out. Sixty-eight years later, Warner Bros. has restored the film in an uncut 4K version, which they’ll release around Halloween this year.

They went back to the long-forgotten Warner Bros. film vaults and uncovered the original too-hot-for-their-time scenes and also how Dracula dies in the end. In 1958, it cost $278,000 and grossed $3.5 million. (Big money then!)

Pedro Pascal scored big with “The Mandalorian and Grogu,” which grossed $167.1 million during its first week. He’s completed his role in “Avengers: Doomsday” as Reed Richards/ Mister Fantastic, and it’ll open on Dec. 18. He also completed “Behe-moth!” with Will Arnett, Olivia Wilde and Matthew Lillard. We can only assume that it’s about yet another prehistoric creature on the loose.

Pascal’s currently shooting the romantic drama “De Noche,” opposite love interest Danny Ramirez, who was the Falcon in Marvel’s “Captain America: “Brave New World” (2025) and the Disney+ series “The Falcon and the Winter Soldier” (2021). In addition, he starred in “Top Gun: Maverick” and the HBO series “The Last of Us,” which also starred Pascal.

Pascal is 51, while Ramirez is 33, and Ramirez looks like he could be Pascal’s son. And you thought Pascal exploring space was the only daring thing that he did!

CELEBRITY EXTRA

By Dana Jackson

Q: Is the series “Lioness” with Zoe Saldana coming back for another season, and if so, when? - D.P.

A: Yes, “Lioness,” one of the many scripted series created by the prolific Taylor Sheridan, is returning to Paramount+ on Aug. 2. It stars Oscar winners Zoe Saldana as a CIA operative and Nicole Kidman as her supervisor, who manages the tactical deployment of her Lioness operatives. Other operatives include Laysla de Oliveira and Genesis Rodriguez.

In the third season, look for Joe’s (Saldana) relationship with her surgeon husband, Neal (Dave Annable), to become more complicated as her missions get more dangerous. Another Academy Award winner, Morgan Freeman, will also be returning this season as the United States secretary of state.

Q: I finally watched the final season of “Stranger Things.” I don’t like it when endings are vague. Have the creators of the show definitively said whether Eleven is alive or dead? - M.A.

A: I’m with you. I like my series finales to spell out the endings of my heroes and villains. Even better is when they give a glimpse into their futures. (“Six Feet Under” gave its fans a top-tier ending, in my opinion.) While nothing could be as vague and unsatisfying as the ending of HBO’s “The Sopranos,” many viewers were disappointed with how “Stranger Things” wrapped up the story of one character in particular - Eleven, played by Millie Bobby Brown.

When asked about the true fate of Eleven, creators Matt and Ross Duffer told the Hollywood Reporter that they did have discussions with Brown and that “we all have our own interpretations.” They emphasized that it’s important to them for the audience to find their own meaning in the show’s conclusion. Matt further stated, “There’s a point in not knowing,” and that knowing would “minimize Eleven’s sacrifice.”

Be sure to check out the Netflix documentary “One Last Adventure: The Making of Stranger Things 5,” which gives further insight from the writers and cast.

Q: Who is Dua Lipa’s new husband? He’s a British actor, I believe, but I haven’t seen him in anything. - K.S.

A: Callum Turner is a 36-year-old British actor/model who met pop singer Dua Lipa at a mutual friend’s birthday party. They were seated next to each other and realized that they were both reading the same novel (“Trust” by Hernan Diaz). They were soon spotted at the premiere of the miniseries “Masters of the Air,” which starred Turner and Austin Butler.

Turner is probably best known for playing a wizard named Theseus in the “Fantastic Beasts” movies, which serve as the prequels to the “Harry Potter” films. He bleached his hair to play a 1930s rower for the movie “The Boys in the Boat,” which was directed by George Clooney. You can also catch him in the upcoming Apple TV series “Neuromancer” with Peter Sarsgaard (“DTF St. Louis”).

SALOME’S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A change of season reinvigorates the Lamb, helping to overcome the effects of a recent slower-paced period. This is a good time to restate your feelings for a certain someone.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You might not like using your authority to correct a workplace situation, but this is what being in charge is all about. Besides, you have people ready to lend support if need be.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your creativity continues to run high and helps guide you to make some fine choices in the work that you’re doing. Keep the weekend free for the special people in your life.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Don’t be surprised if you experience a sudden spurt of energy that is strong enough to pull you out of a recent period of indecision and put you back in charge of your own goals.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) This is a good time for Leos and Leonas to set new goals regarding health, educational choices, and possible career moves. The plans you make now could be a blueprint for your future.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might have much to offer to a potential employer, but it can all be overwhelmed by too many details. Let the facts about you speak for themselves without any embellishments.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) This is a good week to balance your responsibilities to your work-a-day world with your obligations to the people who are in your private life. Expect news that could lead to a change in plans.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A changing attitude on the part of a once-determined adversary could cause changes down the line. Be prepared to take advantage of an unexpected new opportunity!

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You’d be a truly wise SAGITTARIUS to be skeptical about an offer that doesn’t answer all your questions. Even a colleague’s testimonial doesn’t replace facts that aren’t there.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) It’s a good idea to avoid spending money on unnecessary purchases this week in order to keep a reserve against a possible upcoming (but fortunately temporary) shortfall.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) More information is what you should demand regarding a workplace situation that recently came to light. Don’t be surprised at who might turn up as one of your supporters.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might still be in a “treading water” mode, but by midweek, a shift in your aspect favors taking a more active role in pushing for the changes that you feel are necessary. Good luck!

STRANGE BUT TRUE

Unlike some genocides in which victims could sometimes avoid persecution by converting to another religion, Nazi Germany generally defined Jews by ancestry rather than personal belief. Under the Nuremberg Laws, a person’s classification depended largely on the religious affiliation of parents and grandparents, so conversion to Christianity usually did not exempt someone of Jewish ancestry from anti-Jewish persecution.

In one of his occasional efforts to improve public relations, Chicago gangster Al Capone opened a soup kitchen during the Great Depression.

During the pre-WWII drafts, an illiterate gentleman hoping to avoid military service asked his wife to write the draft board and explain how much he was needed at home. The plan backfired when his lady instead requested that her husband be taken because he was a “no-good” alcoholic who didn’t help around the house.

A Celebration of Black Excellence Across Music, Television, Film and Sports

By Jennifer Harrison

The countdown has officially begun for “Culture’s Biggest Night.” The 2026 BET Awards will air live on BET from the Peacock Theater in Los Angeles on Sunday, June 28 at 8 p.m. Moving to the prominent Peacock Theater in Los Angeles, this year’s ceremony promises to be a massive celebration of Black excellence across music, television, film, and sports.

Bringing a fresh wave of comedic energy to the podium, award-winning comedian and digital cultural sensation Druski has been named the host for this year’s ceremony. Known for his sharp internet satire, viral sketches, and massive cultural footprint, Druski represents a bridge between traditional entertainment and the digital pulse of modern media.

This year’s “BET Awards ’26” nominees reflect multifaceted creative expression and Black excellence across music, television, film, and sports. Nominations were selected by the BET Voting Academy, which is an esteemed group of entertainment professionals and influencers in the fields of music, media, digital marketing, sports journalism, public relations and creative arts.

Cardi B leads the entire pack with a total of six nominations, riding high on the success of her latest creative rollouts. Kendrick Lamar follows closely with five nominations, capitalizing on a historic musical run. Mariah the Scientist ties Lamar with five nominations of her own, cementing her status as an R&B powerhouse. Additionally, Doechii, Doja Cat, Clipse, Teyana Taylor, Olivia Dean, and Latto each secured a strong showing with four nods apiece.

Kendrick Lamar’s dominance at the BET Awards follows a triumphant night at the Grammy Awards on February 1, 2026, where he took home five trophies. Among his wins were Best Record of the Year and Best Melodic Rap Performance for “Luther,” his chart-topping collaboration with SZA that also features the late R&B icon Luther Vandross. The industry narrative highlights recent months as the definitive era for a Kendrick Lamar collaboration. Beyond “Luther,” Lamar is recognized for his verses on Clipse’s “Chains and Whips,” as well as the track “Good Flirts” alongside Baby Keem and Momo Boyd. A diverse group of major artists also earned three nominations each, including A$AP Rocky, Bruno Mars, Bryson Tiller, Chris Brown, Jill Scott, Kehlani, Metro Boomin, SZA, Tasha Cobbs Leonard, T.I., and YK Niece.

The musical categories feature a tight race between critical darlings and commercial giants. The Album of the Year category features several heavy hitters, including “Let God Sort Em Out” by Clipse, which also earned a 2026 Grammy nomination. Other projects fighting for the top spot include “Am I the Drama?” by Cardi B, “Don’t Tap the Glass” by Tyler, the Creator, “Everything Is a Lot” by Wale, “Hearts Sold Separately” by Mariah the Scientist, “Mutt Deluxe: Heel” by Leon Thomas, “The Fall-Off” by J. Cole, and “The Romantic” by Bruno Mars.

The Movie of the Year category features a fascinating intersection with traditional Hollywood award circuits. Nominees include the horror-thriller “Sinners,” the musical spectacle “Wicked: For Good,” and the Oscar-winning drama “One Battle After Another.” The inclusion of “Wicked: For Good” adds an element of intrigue, as the film was completely overlooked by the Academy Awards during their voting process, giving the BET Awards a chance to offer a different cultural consensus.

The acting brackets for the 2026 BET Awards celebrate an exceptional year of storytelling across cinema and television, bringing critical acclaim to both the Best Actor and Best Actress categories. Leading the cinematic contenders, Michael B. Jordan secures a Best Actor nomination for Ryan Coogler’s “Sinners,” sharing the category with his co-star Delroy Lindo, who earned a nod as Delta Slim. Teyana Taylor bridges the acting fields with a Best Actor category nomination for her supporting role as Perfidia Beverly Hills in Paul Thomas Anderson’s “One Battle After Another” — a performance that, alongside Lindo’s, earned a historic first-ever Oscar nomination earlier this year. In the Best Actress field, Cynthia Erivo anchors the category for her widely praised performance in “Wicked: For Good.” The remaining powerhouse talent pool features a stellar lineup of screen icons and rising stars, including Aaron Pierre, Aldis Hodge, Angela Bassett, Anthony Mackie, Ayo Edebiri, Chase Infiniti, Coco Jones, Colman Domingo, Damson Idris, Denzel Washington, Keke Palmer, Quinta Brunson, Regina Hall, and Sterling K. Brown.

Cardi B leads the pack with 6 nominations, as the “2026 BET Awards” airs live on BET from the Peacock Theater in Los Angeles on Sunday, June 28 at 8 p.m.

Taylor is pulling double duty creatively, as her video, “Escape Room (Short Film),” is nominated for Video of the Year. The 36-minute visual companion to her Grammy-nominated 2025 album of the same name was directed by Taylor through her all-female production house, The Aunties, and uses dramatic vignettes to explore her personal emotional evolution. It squares off against Kendrick Lamar and SZA’s smash hit “Luther.”

Nominees were selected by the BET Voting Academy, which is comprised of entertainment professionals and influencers in the fields of music, media, digital marketing, sports journalism, public relations and creative arts.

The 2026 BET Awards, hosted by Druski, will air live on Sunday, June 28, at 8 p.m. ET/PT on BET and will be simulcast on BET HER, CMT, LOGO, MTV, MTV2, Nickelodeon, Paramount, POP, VH1, Comedy Central and TV Land.

THE POD REPORT

By Dana Block

Pride Month

June officially became recognized as Pride Month by President Bill Clinton in 1999. While one particular administration has done its best to remove the federal recognition of all things Pride, these podcasts continue to march forth with perseverance:

“Making Gay History” - This podcast comes highly recommended for its use of archival interviews to promote these sometimes-forgotten stories. It concluded its 14th season in 2025, but there are 155 free episodes to download from the show’s archives. Through recorded and written memories, “The Nazi Era” (season 14) tells us how the walls closed in on LGBTQ people after Hitler came to power. In “Stonewall” (season 13), listeners can “travel back to the turbulent 1960s to the tinderbox that was Greenwich Village on the eve of an uprising.” (MakingGayHistory.org)

“LGBTQ&A” - This Outstanding Podcast nominee at the GLAAD Awards features weekly interviews with whom it touts as “the most interesting LGBTQ+ people in the world.” Guests include former United States secretary of transportation Pete Buttigieg, who discusses what it was like serving in the Navy under the Don't Ask, Don't Tell policy, as well as actor and centenarian Alan Shayne, who recently released his memoir “And It Only Took 100 Years ...” Also, be sure to listen to the episode from May of this year that celebrates the life and contributions of the late Massachusetts congressman Barney Frank. (LGBTQPodcast.com)

“Coming Out Stories” - This podcast takes its audience back to some of the most important moments in many people’s lives. It doesn’t matter if you haven’t had a conversation like this yourself. “Everyone can recognise the innate human desire to love and be loved,” teases the podcast. “And that’s what these stories are about.” Stories are featured from people like Wendy Cole, who knew from age 3 that she was a girl despite being assigned male at birth, and Bobby Jean Spears, who grew up queer in rural West Virginia and has developed a large following on social media. (ComingOutStoriesPodcast.com)

Don’t Forget These Gems

“You’re Wrong About” - This popular podcast is hosted by journalist Sarah Marshall who, each week, “reconsiders a person or event that’s been miscast in the public imagination.” A memorable 2019 episode titled “The Stonewall Uprising” is praised for recognizing the people who often aren’t given credit for their bravery during this 1960s rebellion - the drag queens, trans women of color, and sex workers. (Buzzsprout.com)

“Gender Reveal” - This Pea-body-Award-nominated podcast hosted by Tuck Woodstock began in 2018 as a search for an answer to the question: “What exactly is gender?” It has since evolved into “an excuse to chat with a bunch of smart, funny, hot people” about a very wide range of topics - everything from anarchism and literature, to immigration and health care, and gender of course! COUCH THEATER

By Demi Taveras

“How to Make a Killing” (R) - Glen Powell (“The Running Man”) leads this black-comedy thriller that also stars Margaret Qualley (“The Substance”), Topher Grace (“Flight Risk”), and Ed Harris (“Love Lies Bleeding”). It follows Becket Redfellow (Powell), who was born to an affluent family but was shunned due to his mother being a teenager when she had him. Stuck on the idea that he still deserves the life that his family has, Becket learns that he’s still in line for the family fortune due to a loophole. So, he nefariously decides to murder the remaining living Redfellows so that he can claim the $28 billion jackpot. The film barely made up its budget in theaters and didn’t generate much buzz from audiences, which could be because it leans into “American Psycho” territory without the actual allure of the film. Premieres June 19. (HBO Max)

Glen Powell stars in “How to Make a Killing.”

In Case You Missed It

“Love Island USA: Season 8” (TV-MA) - It’s almost unbelievable to think that it’s already been a year since the hot mess that was season 7 of “Love Island USA.” This time around, we’ve got a new batch of (somewhat) normal contestants, as opposed to the influencer-heavy group we had last year. For example, Beatriz Hatz from San Diego, California, is a Paralympic athlete looking to find a man who matches her spiciness. Of course, there are a handful of models, and digital creator Zach Georgiou is the brother of Charlie from last season. (Hopefully, he has better luck!) But overall, “Love Island USA” is back to its usual fashion of stirring up crazy amounts of drama with regular folks like the ones who are watching at home. Almost a dozen episodes are out now to watch, but you’ll have to catch up quickly so that you don’t miss out on the finale! (Peacock)

DIY Condensed Cream of (Fill in the Blank) Soup

Simple Soup Switch is Cheaper, Healthier and Delicious

You probably have lots of quick, easy recipes that call for condensed cream soups, like cream of chicken, cream of mushroom, or cream of celery. At any rate, they’re pantry staples and I bet you have some in your cupboards right now. However, have you looked at the ingredients? Go ahead, I’ll wait. Seriously. Go now and look at a can of soup. See? Specifically, it’s surprising that soup with “cream” in the name has less than 2% actual milk or cream. Top ingredients in all the brands I found are water, vegetable oil and modified food starch. Additionally, it’s high in sodium and has practically zero nutrition. We can do so much better than that.

Easy homemade Condensed Cream of (fill in the blank) Soup! Delicious, healthy and CHEAP! This versatile recipe is low fat, low sodium and gluten free! So much better than the canned stuff. Here’s why it’s worth the extra bit of effort; it’s totally cheap and delicious. Furthermore, you control the sodium, fat and you can easily customize it to your personal taste. Did I mention it’s easy? You may never go back to canned stuff again. Due to the fact this recipe is gluten free and contains only real food ingredients, you’ll love having it on repeat. It’s makes about a quart or the equivalent of three cans of condensed soup and can be used in any recipe calling for condensed cream soup.

There’s a base recipe, so you can add chicken to make cream of chicken, mushrooms to make cream of mushroom, celery to make. . . you get it! And you can go beyond the basics found in the grocery store. Get creative with your favorite veggies, like asparagus, onion, peppers, or broccoli. Use leftovers from your dinner to make protein added cream soup – cream of shrimp, pork, beef, or bacon! Add as much or as little additional ingredients as you like. More herbs! Lots of spices! Keep it in the fridge for up to seven days. You can make just the basic versatile base and add the additional ingredients as you use it, like sautéed mushrooms or onion, if you wish. It can even make easy gravy or cheese sauce, too!

DIY Condensed Cream of (Fill in the Blank) Soup

What You’ll Need:

- 1 (12 oz.) can evaporated milk – skim, 2% or whole
- 2 (14 oz.) cans chicken, beef or vegetable broth
- ¼ cup corn starch
- ½ teaspoon garlic powder
- ½ teaspoon onion powder
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- ½ teaspoon salt – or to taste

Optional add ins – 1 cup mushrooms – minced and sautéed, or 1 cup celery – minced and sautéed, or 1 cup cooked chicken – minced.

Here’s How:

Place all seven base ingredients into a blender and blend until completely combined.

Next, pour into a large sauce pan (Use a 3 quart pan as this can boil up) on medium-low heat and whisking constantly, slowly heat to boiling. The soup will thicken as it boils and even more as it cools. At this time you can add any optional ingredients.

Finally, remove from heat. Use immediately or cool and store in the fridge.

Please note, this recipe makes condensed soup, but you can add milk or water to get the consistency you want for a fast and frugal bowl of delicious creamy soup. Simply, add a salad or sandwich and dinner is done!

Diva Tip – Slice the vegetables to the size you enjoy, I like mine chunky. But if you have picky eaters who pick out every trace of mushroom or celery, just puree the veggies completely in the blender while you’re putting the soup together. It’ll taste terrific and they’ll never know. It’ll be our secret.
